

Bride-to-be Feted.

Miss Zena Flahaven, who will become the bride of Walter Becker of this city June 22, was honored at a lovely pre-nuptial party on Saturday evening. Betty Grothenhuis, of Chicago, Virginia Patterson of Streator, Virginia Hoskins and Lois Flug were hostesses at the party in the R. L. Ball home.

A delightful evening of visiting, bridge playing and Chinese checkers was enjoyed. Fern Pomeranke and Florence Moore received the prizes in bridge and Mrs. Ball received the Chinese checkers prize. These were presented to the honored guest.

Miss Flahaven was showered with many lovely gifts for her new home which will be established in Wenona.

A delicious two-course lunch was served in keeping with the occasion. Miss Mary Moore of Springfield was an out of town guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Moffett departed Thursday on a vacation