

Sudden Death of
Mrs. Lois Morrison
Friday Night 6/5/44

Mrs. Lois (Garvin) Morrison, 59, died suddenly about 8:30 o'clock Friday night in the home of her father, John Garvin, with whom she had been residing. Mr. Garvin found his daughter dead when he arrived home about midnight from a card party in the home of friends. Death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon from St. John's Methodist church with the Rev. C. C. Keur, retired, and the Rev. Richard McGuire, residing pastor, officiating. Miss Blanche Lindgren was organist and vocal soloist. Burial was in Hope cemetery, Lstant. Pallbearers were Harvey Bowman of Rutland, Louis Hofer of Henry, Wayne Marshall, Fred Kuehn, Virgil Mann, Sr., and William Sullivan.

The deceased was born Jan. 2, 1905 in Wenona, the daughter of John K. and Edna Pearl (Kregor) Garvin. She graduated from Wenona high school in 1923 and attended Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington. She married Charles E. Morrison in Bloomington in Sept., 1925. She resided at Joliet for a number of years and then moved to Santa Monica, Calif., where she lived for about 20 years before returning to Wenona about two years ago.

She was preceded in death by her mother in 1960.

Surviving are her father; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Catherine Radke of Mill Valley, Calif., and a granddaughter, Peggy Ann Radke.

Mrs. Morrison was a member of St. John's Methodist church.
